

MAPPETITE: Curated city guides

Mappetite appears to be the hottest new take on the restaurant reference guide. The innovative flip-and-fold design brings together destination neighbourhoods, landmarks and the places where locals go to eat. Focused and convenient, Mappetite features no paid advertising and even less mediocrity. It's opinionated, authoritative and entertaining.

Mappetites are available now for New York, San Francisco and London. The series will continue with Mappetite Los Angeles, Chicago and Paris.

WineSkin®: The go-anywhere bottle enclosure with the leak-proof seal.

From The Source, LLC has introduced a new product to help transport 750-ml wine and spirit bottles safely and securely. WineSkin® features a durable plastic exterior and a protective bubble-wrap interior to absorb shock and reduce the risk of bottle breakage. A dual-strip sealing system prevents leaks if breakage does occur.
