Andrew Bradbury, the sommelier behind Clo, the new wine bar and store in the Time Warner Center, follows design as closely as he follows emerging wine regions. So expect to see more than just ho-hum balloon glasses and leaded-crystal decanters. Much of the glassware at the store is culled from his travels and includes Zoe Stanton's suite of self-filling Champagne glasses from Britain (above), Julia Leihener's stemless Thup glass from Germany and Takahide Sano's off-kilter Mickey decanter from Italy. There is also Extremis's DollyPop wine cooler (it's woolly!) and Hiroshi Tsunoda's graphic wine rack. Even the shopping bags — bottle-shaped sleeves made of Bubble Wrap, designed by WineSkin with the cutting-edge firm 2x4 — bring some much-needed sass to vinoculture.
